

Graphic Design Rates 2023

For graphic design projects, you can purchase one of our pre-paid bundles, giving you the flexibility of our services on demand. The larger the bundle, the lower the hourly rate and the longer the time period you have to use them.

Users of our of pre-paid bundles benefit from priority service, resulting in faster turnaround times. These bundles are specific to graphic design and artwork, separate bundles are available for digital marketing projects.

You will be provided with a breakdown of hours used each month and any unused hours will be carried forward within the contract period. Our bundled packages exclude VAT and are paid for in advance.

Please note; website design projects and consultancy work will be quoted on a fixed price basis.
